

Jerrold Corbett, M.D.
1924 - 2011

Passed away after a long illness Sunday April 17, 2011 in Jackson, CA at the age of 86 years. He was born August 20, 1924, to John & Edna (Brant) Corbett in Minot, North Dakota. Jerrold was a veteran, serving in the U.S. Navy during World War II and the Korean War. He studied medicine at the University of North Dakota Medical School, and Loma Linda University in Loma Linda, CA. He took a short break from medical school to attend the College of Arts & Crafts in Oakland, CA. His College fraternity was Sigma Chi. Jerrold married Joan Bray on May 23, 1955 in Grand Fork, North Dakota. He finished his medical degree in 1957 and interned at the White Memorial Hospital in Las Angeles, CA and then enjoyed a 54-year career as a Family Medical Doctor. He practiced medicine at Sutter-Amador clinics in Pioneer and Plymouth. He was also on staff at Sutter-Amador Hospital in Jackson, CA. His career included Chief of Staff at the Roseville Hosp., Director of Humboldt State University Student Health Center and on staff at St. Joseph Hospital in Eureka, CA. He served as weekend ER physician at the Hoopa Indian reservation in Hoopa, CA. He spent 9 years traveling all over the Pacific and south Atlantic on clipper ships as ship doctor. He sailed 14 times to Antarctica for the society and special expeditions. Jerrold was a member of the American Medical Assoc., California Medical Assoc., The Placer-Nevada Medical Assoc., Sacramento County Medical Society, Humboldt-Del Norte Medical Society, The Elks Lodge and The American Legend. He enjoyed gardening, decorating his home and puttering around the house. He is survived by his wife of 55 years, Joan Corbett of Sutter Creek, CA.